

Little Free Library Scavenger Hunt Bingo

There are a lot of Little Free Libraries throughout MetroWest — not to mention the Greater Boston area! Maybe you're a parent or caregiver and looking for a fun activity for a morning or afternoon and want to hit up as many of these as you can. Or maybe you're an adult and want to keep this list handy if you happen to be in a specific area and it occurs to you, "hey, I could check out a Little Free Library while I'm here!"

You can always stop by any LFL that you happen upon — that's why they're there! But If you'd like to join the fun more formally, we encourage you to visit different LFLs and search for items on the attached page. Here are the "rules" for the MetroWest Readers Fest LFL Scavenger Hunt Bingo:

To be entered in a raffle for a $10 gift certificate to the Goodnow Book Nook, an online gently used book sale sponsored by the Goodnow Library Foundation, please find FIVE of the following items and send us some pictorial evidence! (info@metrowestreadersfest.org). We will be drawing names for the raffle on September 26.

 "Pictorial evidence" can be as simple as five photos of the books. But if you would like to get in on the fun even more, feel free to send us selfies, pics of the actual LFLs (there are some really cool ones!), etc. If you have a public social media account, you can tag us (@metrowestreadersfest) on Facebook or Instagram and we'd be thrilled to repost. Or, if you send photos via email, we may follow up and ask if we have permission to share.*

Attached is a list of local LFLs that MWRF has been in touch with. Most, but not all, are in MetroWest ... we know people get around in the summer, so you may see a few that are a little off the beaten path! You may also consult the official map of the nonprofit Little Free Library to find any LFLs that have chosen to publicize their location. (Note: This document may be updated periodically. If you are a LFL steward and would like to be included, you may contact us at info@metrowestreadersfest.org. We are only including LFLs that explicitly wish to be included here. Thank you!

METROWEST READERS FEST

Find FIVE of the items below + email us pictures (info@metrowestreadersfest.org) to be entered in a raffle for a $10 gift card to the Goodnow Library Foundation Book Nook! {This is an ongoing activity ... you have until September 26 to participate!}

- A book that was published before the year you were born.
- A book about animals.
- A book written in a non-English language. (Translated-to-English books count!)
- A book authored by someone or that features a character who is different than you. (This could mean a lot of things!)
- A book with a color in the title.
- A book featuring someone with a disability.
- A book from a series.
- A book set in another world or time.
- A book about food.
- A copy of either Don't Ask Me Where I'm From or White Space: Essays on Culture, Race, & Writing by Jennifer De Leon.
- A "golden ticket," i.e. a "reading buddy" lovingly created by a Sudbury resident. A "reading buddy" counts as two items!
